2. Participants must arrange and pay for their own travel. The closest international airports are Manchester and Liverpool airports. A taxi ride from Manchester airport will cost approximately 30-40 pounds. Taxi bookings can be arranged through Mr John Hardie. We recommend that where possible, participants share transport. Liverpool John Lennon airport is connected to the Liverpool city centre by an express bus. The nearest railway station is Liverpool Lime Street, a 15 minute walk from the Laboratory. For those arriving by car, visitors parking permits can be issued on request.

Directions to the University of Liverpool and maps can be found on:

<http://www.liv.ac.uk/about/visiting/index.html> and <http://www.liv.ac.uk/maps/index.html>

3. Participants can arrange their accommodation bookings through Mr John Hardie. Early booking is recommended. Possible accommodation options include hotels, B&Bs and university student halls of residences.
